

Phi Sigma 19th Annual Research Symposium Application

The Phi Sigma Research Symposium was established in 1999 as a professional research symposium that provides a platform for undergraduate and graduate students at Illinois State University, as well as surrounding schools, the opportunity to present and discuss scientific research in a formal academic setting.

If you are interested in presenting at the symposium on Friday, April 13, 2018, please fill out this form and send it in its own email to phisigma.betalambda@gmail.com by 5pm on Friday, March 2, 2018.

If presenting a poster, please note that the recommended poster size is 36" x 48".

Name of Applicant(s):

Presentation Title:

Authors [use asterisk to indicate presenting author(s)]:

Institutional Affiliation:

If using a word processor, please bold your selected answer for the following questions:

Presenting author is a(n): graduate student undergraduate student

If there are multiple presenting authors, please list names and graduate/undergraduate status here: _____

Would you like to compete for travel grants? yes no

Type of presentation preferred: poster oral either

Preferred time (poster): 10:20am-11:20am 12:30pm-1:30pm

Preferred time (oral): 9:00am-10:20am 1:40pm-3:00pm

Abstract (250 words maximum):